

To start off the New Year, 22 students and our missionaries joined over 18,000 participants in St. Louis, Missouri for FOCUS's annual SEEK conference. The weeklong conference offers college students an opportunity to gather for fellowship, talks, and prayer. This year's theme was "Be the Light", and the conference spurred deeper friendships, zeal, and growth in faith for our students; below, some of our students share their experiences at SEEK!

--Jency Clement, FOCUS team member

"I sought to deepen my relationship with Christ at SEEK. I couldn't have imagined beforehand the infinite love that Jesus would pour into the conference, through the conversations, the keynote speakers, and most of all His presence. This experience revealed my true identity as a child of Christ and all of ours--we are the light of the world, loved and chosen to spread the good news!"

--Sophia Parmigiani, Freshman

"I seriously enjoyed meeting and getting to meet new people and rekindling with old friends throughout SEEK. Just seeing over 20,000 College Catholics with such a fire in their souls with Christ gives me peace that the future of the Catholic Church is in good hands."

- Karl Ocampo, Senior

"At SEEK, I experienced a restoration of truth in my identity as a daughter of God, and was filled with hope and courage to continue to say yes to the call He has for me. The Lord shared new parts of his gracious heart with me through special encounters with Him and others in mass, talks, and adoration."

- Kayla Stephens, Senior

"Coming into SEEK, I was trusting with great hope that God would transform me in some way, though I couldn't even guess at how exactly and in what ways. As I'm reflecting on my time at SEEK, I get chills at how SEEK awakened in me a stronger desire to give more to God: sharing His goodness in evangelization; growing from boyhood into manhood; and caring for those materially and spiritually impoverished, possibly too as a vocation. My fear had held me back from being the person I ought to be, and though I'm still afraid, I'm now also being pushed forward by a stronger love for God and for others. I'm incredibly grateful that I got to take this elevator ride to holiness and to the true life that God called me to."

- Marc Nguyen, Junior
