

FROM OUR POPE

“Let us continue our journey concerning vices and virtues; and the ancient Fathers teach us that, after gluttony, the second “demon” – that is, vice – that is always crouching at the door of the heart is that of lust, called porneia in Greek. [...] this second vice is a kind of “voracity” with regard to another person, that is, the poisoned bond that human beings have with each other, especially in the sphere of sexuality. Be careful: in Christianity, there is no condemnation of the sexual instinct. There is no condemnation. A book of the Bible, the Song of Songs, is a wonderful poem of love between two lovers. However, this beautiful dimension of our humanity, the sexual dimension, the dimension of love, is not without its danger.....

“To love is to respect the other, to seek his or her happiness, to cultivate empathy for his or her feelings, to dispose oneself in the knowledge of a body, a psychology, and a soul that are not our own, and that must be contemplated for the beauty they bear. That is love, and love is beautiful. Lust, on the other hand, makes a mockery of all this: lust plunders, it robs, it consumes in haste, it does not want to listen to the other but only to its own need and pleasure; lust judges every courtship a bore, it does not seek that synthesis between reason, drive and feeling that would help us to conduct existence wisely. “

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

Racial Wealth Gap Simulation! This Wednesday, Jan. 24, 7-9 pm

Join us on Wednesday Jan 24, for an enlightening (if shocking and disturbing) interactive game that'll help us better understand the roots of our nation's racial wealth gap. Don't miss this!

Join us beforehand for dinner at 5:30 at The Turkish Kitchen at 1986 Shattuck Ave in Berkeley. If you need a ride, meet Ned & Yvette Niccols in Newman's parking lot at 5 pm (special treat: Newman Hall parishioners get free ice cream on Jan 24 with your meal.)

Downloaded on 1/20/24 from <https://www.aspeninstitute.org/blog-posts/charts-that-explain-wealth-inequality-in-the-united-states/>

Newman Nonviolent Peacemaking joins with Pax Christi and JustFaith to present a morning program on Peace.

January 27th 9:30 am until noon. Peace and justice teachers, writers, and activists John Dear, SJ and Therese Mughannam Walrath will share insights from their decades of experience. Please scan the QR code see the flyer for details and to RSVP.

Students. The Student Ministry Team and FOCUS have a number of activities planned for you this semester. Check out the SLACK channel at newmanvillage.slack.com to find out what's happening when.

Welcome to Newman Hall-Holy Spirit Parish

a ministry of the Paulist Fathers

We gather...

To hear God's word,

To taste Jesus' life in the Eucharist,

To be a community of God's love for one another and for all.

We are sent...

To relish learning that enriches all lives,

To heal divisions in our church and world,

To participate in the world's quest for justice and peace.
