WANTED: SOMEONE WITH EXPERIENCE WITH SOLAR PANELS OR THE FINANCING OF THEM.

We are exploring putting solar panels on the roof of Newman. The pastor is trying to form a committee to help guide him in this project. There are several folks coming to the parish proposing solar panel projects with all sorts of financing schemes at no cost to Newman. Key is deciding which solar panel system and what financing makes sense. If you have knowledge in this area and can help be on a Solar Panel Committee, please contact Fr. Ivan at itou@calnewman.org.

KNOW SOMEONE WHO WOULD MAKE A GREAT STUDENT MINISTER NEXT YEAR?

LITURGY in the time of COVID-19

Please note that out of our growing concern for the Novo Coronavirus and our respect for the health and well-being of all, until further notice, the staff invites us to offer the Sign of Peace in a ‘non-tactile’ manner, using smiles, vocal responses, nod, and bows, for example. Additionally, inspired by Bishop Barber’s diocesan letter as well as the concerns of many community members - some currently undergoing various treatments, we have also agreed not to offer the Precious Blood to the community at this time. May these changes inspire us to pray for those affected by the rampant Coronavirus, those caring for them, and those researching a cure. Thank you for your understanding.

DOROTHY DAY FILM

The new documentary film Revolution of the Heart: The Dorothy Day Story will begin airing on PBS stations in March 2020 to coincide with Women's History Month. The film tells the dramatic story of the great Catholic social activist, anarchist, pacifist, and journalist who is now being considered for sainthood in the Catholic Church. Contributing to the film are New York Cardinal Timothy Dolan, actor Martin Sheen, public theologian Cornel West, Sojourner's Jim Wallis, author Joan Chittister, Mark Massa, Paul Elie and Day's granddaughters Martha and Kate Hennessy. To inquire about theatre screenings in your area, contact info@journeyfilms.com.

HEARING ASSISTANCE UNITS

Thanks to the generosity of our community, we provide hearing assistance units for anyone who might find them helpful. These are available from the receptionist and should be returned after each Mass. For regular users, we keep your earpiece in a labeled envelope for you.
